

Serving the Children of the World

Danvers Kiwanis News for Tuesday February 7th, 2012

Volume 1, Issue 5

By Sue Tag

Club News

Pres. Jesse started the meeting at 12:15. Sandy Warren said the blessing. Thank you Sandy.

GUESTS/BIRTHDAYS:

Alan Thibeault, who is the new library director and Ahlea Isabella from the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society were our guests. Happy Birthday to Paula Gates!

GAMES: Free lunch was won by Frank Tyrell. We are still looking for the 8 of diamonds, and Doc. Comeau and Peg Sallade were unable to fine it. Maybe next week.

- At our night meeting, the service project was decorating little boxes with Valentine's day stickers and filling them with candy to distribute to the families with children who go to the food pantry. Thank you Kay for getting that done and running the meeting for me
- I just was made aware that all these years that the Library was having full page ads, Doug Rendell was paying the 500 dollars out of his own pocket because the library can't use public money for ads. So... The Seventh Annual Hall of Honor Ceremony will be held at the Yacht Club on Thursday March 8th 6 -- 9 pm. Three folks are being honored by the Danvers Public Schools.....Tiffany DeCoff, James Farley, and, guess who? Doug Rendell.
 - We are offering the club members an offer of tickets via buy one, get one free.
 - I propose that we all buy a personal ad for the Pancake Breakfast, to compensate for Doug generosity over the many years he served as Director at the Library.
- Leukemia & Lymphoma Society-Ahlea Isabella, Campaign Coordinator, came from Natick to speak about the Light the Night Walk to be held 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 30th, 2012 @ Lake Quannapowitt, Wakefield. The Walk is a night to pay tribute and bring hope to people with cancer. Proceeds from Light the Night support the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's mission to cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma. Participants carry illuminated balloons to signify status: White means survivor; Red means in treatment and Gold balloons mean in memory of. Monies raised also help to improve the quality of patient lives and their families by providing support groups. Four ways to participate are to become a sponsor and donate; become a retail partner; organize a Walk Team; or volunteer pre-event or the day of the event. In 2011 $50.8 million has been raised nationwide for research and support. Contact: 508.810-1342 or www.lighthenight.org/ma.

Happy Dollars:

1. Med Anderson-happy for a great SnowBall.
2. Dan Bennett is happy to see Frank T. at the meeting.
3. Gayla Bartlett is happy for a great SnowBall. Alan was wonderful!
4. Maureen Bernard is happy for her Birthday present from her kids!
5. Glenn Boutchie is sad because of the Patriots.
6. Sharon Clark is happy just to be here.
7. Doc Comeau is happy to be here with the great company.
8. Myrna Fearer is happy for the successful YMCA SnowBall.
9. Maureen Gillis is happy to have her husband back to work.
10. Dick Gilmore is happy that winter is slipping by.
11. Kathy Giordano is happy to be back at Kiwanis.
12. Alan Hartnett is happy to be sitting with past president Ken Koon.
13. Frank Herschede is happy that Alan Thibeault is his guest—maybe a new member?
14. Jesse James is sad for the Patriot loss.
15. Ken Koon is sad about the Patriot loss.
16. Irene Kucinski is happy to be sitting with a wonderful crew of gentlemen & a lovely lady.
17. C.R. Lyons is happy that Frank T. made it to lunch today.
18. Malcolm MacLean is happy that I could make Kiwanis today.
19. Kay Maurice is happy to have Frank T. at her table.
20. Gigi Miller is happy that she survived her 50th Birthday last week.
21. Susan Rogers is happy to catch up with Myrna.
22. Ellie Ross is happy that Alan Thibeault is at our meeting.

- 24. Susan Rogers is happy to catch up with Myrna.
- 25. Ellie Ross is happy that Alan Thibeault is at our meeting.
- 26. Peg Sallade is sad because she was late today.
- 27. Art Skarmeas is happy that it is snowing?!
- 28. Pat Small is sad about the Pat's loss.
- 29. Sue Tagg is happy that there's no snow (yet).
- 30. Jim Tallo is sad for the Pat's loss.
- 31. Alan Thibeault is happy to be at the meeting.
- 32. Dave Townley is sad about the Patriot's loss.
- 33. Frank Tyrrell is happy to be here. Thanks for all the cards and calls.
- 34. Sandi Warren is happy for a great SnowBall.

Last week answer:

John Call last weeks puzzle 5 minutes after I sent out the email!
 Correct answer was:
 B, G, H

BrainTeaser of the week :

Using eight eights and addition only, can you make 1000?

$$8+8+8+8+8+8+8+8=1000$$

KEY KIWANIS DATES . . .

February 8th, 2012– The Danvers Historical Society will present "Political Memorabilia From the Lincoln Years On" with guest speaker, Alan Hartnett. This timely topic is sure to interest many. Alan has a passion for and has been collecting memorabilia for his extensive collection for years now. Please come and be entertained. Program begins at 7:00PM at Tapley Memorial Hall, 13 Page Street, Danvers. Light refreshments will be served. Reservations please to 978.777.1666 or dhs@danvershistory.org.