

Danvers Kiwanis News for October 25th , 2011

Volume 4, Issue 3 By Sue Tagg

Pres. Jesse welcomed everyone, led us in the Pledge of Allegiance, and had Sandy Lane lead us in the blessing.

GUESTS/BIRTHDAYS

Our speaker: Molly Buccini, Editor, and Marketing Director Huntley Rainville, of Patch.com., Jim Bonfonti, Esq of Eastern Bank, and Peg Sallade, Danvers Cares Project Manager, both having submitted applications. Also Jennifer Tineo from Twin Oaks Nursing Facility, and Maureen Bernard's daughter, Tara Bernard.

GAMES: Dan Bennett and Jim Tallo tried to find the elusive King ... no dice!
And our Minister of the day, Sandy Lane won the Free Lunch!

Closing joke from Frank Herschede... Something about young women skinny dipping and an old farmer feeding the alligators. What more do you need?

The Patch?

Molly was hired right out of college and put into the job as Editor of the Patch, which is owned by A.O.L. So What is Patch? Simply put, Patch is a new way to find out about, and participate in, what's going on near you. They a community-specific news and information platform dedicated to providing comprehensive and trusted local coverage for individual towns and communities. They want to make our life better by giving you quick access to the information that's most relevant to you. Patch makes it easy to:

- Keep up with news and events
- Look at photos and videos from around town
- Learn about local businesses
- Participate in discussions
- Submit your own announcements, photos, and reviews

Where You Come In

We hope that our sites will strengthen communities and improve the lives of their residents, but we can't do it without you. We've built Patch so that you have plenty of opportunities to comment on stories, share your opinions, post photos and announcements, and add events to the community calendar. The Danvers Patch has over 30 contributors . . . the next one could be you . . . so get to it!

Giving Back

You can't truly serve a community unless you provide the help it needs most, which is why giving back is so important to us. We do it as part of our coverage — in a dedicated space that lets local charities and volunteers find each other — and with a program called "Give 5," through which we donate free advertising space to charitable organizations and contribute our own time as volunteers.

The Danvers Patch can be found at www.danvers.patch.com . You can also sign up there for the newsletter, with Danvers news, events, and deals, delivered straight to your mailbox each day, including 5 helpful hints to think about or do every day! The Danvers Patch a great source of community information to receive and be part of. It has a young staff with lot of energy and technical savvy. Definitely a good addition to the North Shore!

Community Announcements

Saturday, Oct 29 Masquerade Ball: YMCA of the North Shore's Annual Fundraising Gala The Masquerade Gala will be a night to remember featuring a signature cocktail, fabulous dinner and dancing to Catch 22, unique silent and live auction items and special surprises. 100% of the proceeds benefit the Y to help children, adults and families across the North Shore.

For more information, contact Wendy Dillon, at 978.922.0990 or dillonw@northshoreymca.org

Free Reiki Clinic at Addison Gilbert Hospital is held twice a month at Addison Gilbert Hospital, 298 Washington Street, Gloucester. The clinic is facilitated by Reiki Master Practitioner Stacy Harrington, RN, OCN. To schedule an appointment for an upcoming clinic, please call 978-283-4000, ext. 559.

Reiki is an ancient relaxation method that may reduce stress and assist in the restoration of mind/body balance.

KEY KIWANIS DATES

Saturday Oct. 29 Pot Luck Party at the Gould Barn in Topsfield. a 'Fall Festivas for the Bestivas.'

It's a pot luck affair... that is, it only costs you your time and some food to share. We have live music and Gayla promises some fun things to do. It's near Halloween, so you can wear your favorite costume if you wish... but don't let that stop you from coming: there is no stigma to coming just as you!

POTLUCK DINNER

Take Route 1 North to the Topsfield town sign. Proceed 2 miles, passing the Topsfield Fairgrounds and continuing to the Route 97 intersection traffic light. Go left on 97 ½ mile to the Capen sign just before the stop sign. Go right on East Common Street 200 yards to the Capen parking area on the right.

Wednesday Nov 2, Kiwanis night meeting. The night meeting has changed its venue. Will now meet at 6:00 pm at Calitri's, and we will do a service project at dinner.

Tuesday Nov 8, First Interclub at the Beverly Club Luncheon, at Acapulco's at the Cummings Center. There will be a guest speaker on custom-made medicines. Please let Irene know if you can go.

Nov. 17 – 20 The Kiwanis Fall Trainer Conference is in Plymouth. However, Saturday, Nov. 19 has all the workshops. The President would like to encourage you all, if you haven't been, to join us. This is especially important for those who need to cover their CLE training obligations. It's nice to meet other people from Kiwanis and take in a workshop and share ideas and ways to improve the things we do.

Happy Dollars:

- Dan Bennett is happy that Peg Sallade from DanversCares is his guest along with a table of ladies.
- Maureen Bernard is happy because she is having lunch with her guest (and her daughter) Tara.
- Diane Brinkley is happy that she saw Peter Pan in Boston with her 4 grandchildren.
- Dan Brothers is happy to be back at lunch with his friends.
- Sharon Clark is happy for guest speakers who are from the Danvers Patch
  - Don Gates is happy for his new vehicle.
  - Maureen Gillis is happy that her son-in-law is recovering from hip replacement surgery.
  - Frank Herschede is happy that he doesn't have Lyme disease after 3 tick bites.
- President Jesse James is happy that we had a great crowd today.
- Ken Koon is happy about the Texas Rangers lead in the World Series.
- Irene Kucinski is happy to see a nice crowd at the meeting today.
- Sandra Lane is very happy to be back at Kiwanis.
- Malcolm MacLean is happy to see Frank H. & Don Gates.
- Kay Maurice is happy to have Jennifer Tineo from Twin Oaks Nursing Facility as her guest.
- GiGi Miller is happy that I had the time to come to today's meeting.
- Bob Moore is happy to be here.
- Joe Palmer is happy for Gayla winning the Lorraine Roy contest.
- Ellie Ross is happy for all the guests & to see Sandy Lane.
- Peg Sallade is happy to be a guest of Kiwanis today.
- Art Skarmas is happy because Theo is in Chicago.
- Pat Small is happy for another day—Hoorah.
- Sue Tagg is happy that her grandchildren will be at the Cape with me this weekend.
- Frank Tyrell is glad to be here with all his friends.
- Sandi Warren is happy that she & Richard are going to Ireland to see her 3 grand-daughters.

Sad Dollars:

- Myrna Fearer is sad because her computer is giving her a hard time.
- Jim Tallo is sad that snow is in the forecast.

“Being powerful is like being a lady.
If you have to tell people you are, you aren't”