NO GUESTS, NO SPEAKER.

PRESIDENT LAURIE INDUCTED JOE JOSLIN -a Rotarian defector-to our Kiwanis family today and after the pinning ceremony we all welcomed Joe into our club.

Joe is a business owner in town and he and his wife of 27 years are interested in service and helping the community. Just a little trivia- Joe told us that June 10th was National Ballpoint Pen Day and one of the first products he sold was a pen called the Reynolds Rocket developed in 1945 and made of aluminum. It was the first commercially successful ballpoint pen, also known as a biro or ball pen.

KAY MAURICE won the FREE LUNCH but luck ran out when she couldn't find the right CARD. Also, NANCY PETRONIO tried her luck but the card remained elusive.
