

Kiwanis Newsletter

Tuesday, May 30, 2017

President Laurie opened the meeting at 12:20. She was caught opening late by Jesse James, but since Doc Comeau wasn't in the room, no fines were paid.

After the pledge, a blessing was given by Doug Desrocher.

Two birthday girls were in the house, Irene Kucinski whose birthday was yesterday, and Pat Allen whose birthday is today. Pat chose to have all the men sing to her and Irene quickly agreed. I must say they did a great job!

It was a pleasantly, quiet meeting. No guests today.

Lunch consisted of Italian Wedding Soup, Caesar and Spinach Salad, Tomato and Cheese, Onion and Pepper and Chicken Broccoli Pizza. Delicious!

Announcements: Please finish selling your Restaurant Raffle tickets. The winner will be picked at the next night meeting, Wednesday, June 7th.

Time to give Dan the $35.00 if you signed up for the sunset cruise Sat, July 22nd.

Remember: Bike Rodeo will be Saturday, June 24, from 9-12 Great Oak School.

June 27th we will meet at the Senior Center for a cookout. The same evening, Tuesday, June 27th will be the bocce tournament. There will not be a board meeting this night.

Both Gail Tarmey and Bob Moore tried their luck for the lucky card with no luck.

I was the lucky winner of the free lunch :) Many car wash gift certificates were raffled off: Kay Maurice, Ashley Meagher, Glen Boutchie, and Sue Rogers.

Happy/Sad dollars:

Jesse James: Happy for his successful carpal tunnel surgery

Frank Herschede: Happy, sailboat is in the water!

Nancy Petronio: Happy she sat with the two birthday girls

Alan Hartnett: Happy to be at Kiwanis!

Kay Maurice: Happily looking forward to Danversport's party on the patio, Tuesday - outside and Friday – inside!

Dan Bennett: Happy that his grandson has all A's in school

Gail Tarmey: Happy to have her parents settled in retirement community

Bob Moore: Happy for a good weekend with family

Irene Kucinski: Happy she is birthday buddies with Pat Allen

Med Anderson: Happy for the nice, long weekend

Ashley Meagher: Happy that her office is moving to downtown Danvers!

Glenn Boutchie: Happy for 3 reasons--and yes, he paid for all three 1) New job at First Ipswich Bank, 2) Happy to be back at Kiwanis 3) Graduating senior in high school

Ellen Lefavour: Happy that tomorrow will be nicer weather!

Arthur Skarmear: Happy that he got change back from his $20.00 (again, Doc Comeau, where are you?)

Susan Rogers: Happy for Pat and Irene's birthdays

Pat Allen: Happy to celebrate her birthday with all the Kiwanians. Remember today is the REAL Memorial Day before Congress wrecked it in 1971

Laurie Pellerin: Happy for a rain free camping trip on Memorial Day

Chris Chirco: Happy to be heading to Vermont on Thursday for the weekend

Doug Desrocher: Happy to be enjoying his free meal

Barb Remon: Happy for her fun table

Charlie Callozza: Happy to be at Kiwanis

Have a great week---Nancy Petronio
